

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

2.—That the affairs of the Society shall be governed by a Council consisting of a President and twelve Members, the former of whom shall be annually elected by the Council.

3.—That three Members of the Council shall form a quorum.

4.—That the subscription of Members of the Society shall be £1 1s. per annum, which shall entitle them to the publications for the year; but any Member whose subscription shall be two years in arrear shall thereupon be removed from the Society, and shall not be re-admitted until all arrears have been paid. The number of Members is limited to 350.

At this meeting a Report of the work of the Society, with a Statement of the Income and Expenditure, shall be presented. These shall be annually published, together with a List of Members and the Rules of the Society.

7.—That so long as the funds of the Society permit, two volumes at least shall be issued to the Members in each year.

8.—That no copies of the publications of the Society shall be sold to non-members, except at an increased price to be fixed by the Council.

10.—That the Treasurer's Accounts shall be audited by two Members of the Society, who shall be elected at the Annual Meeting.

11.—No alteration shall be made in any of the above Rules except at the Annual General Meeting. Notice of any proposed alterations must be sent to the Hon. Secretary a month before such General Meeting.

12.—That a meeting of the Council of the Society shall be called by the Hon. Secretary at least once in every three months.

The Annual Subscription of £1 1s., entitling the Members to all the Volumes issued for that year, may be paid to the Hon. Treasurer, or to the credit of the Society at their Bankers, the Manchester and Liverpool District Banking Company, Limited, at any of their branches.

Report for the Year 1903-1904.

Read at the Council Meeting held in the Audit Room of the Chetham Hospital, Manchester, October 24th, 1904.

SINCE the last Annual Meeting, held on the 19th October, 1903, two volumes have been issued to the Members. These are, Volume 47, being Part I. of the Lancashire Assize Rolls, 1202-1281, edited by Colonel Parker, and Volume 48 being Lancashire Inquests, Extents and Feudal Aids, 1205-1807, which has been edited by Mr. William Farrer.

The Council feel that it would be difficult to exaggerate the importance of these two books as contributions to the early history of Lancashire, and they view with much satisfaction the continuation of the printing, in the near future, of both series of documents.

For the current year the Members will receive Part II. of the Assize Rolls, 1281-1285, to which will be added an Appendix, including extracts from the Patent Rolls relating to special Lancashire Assizes, and from the Pipe Rolls, together with a full index of persons and places. The second volume for the year will be Part III. of the Lancashire Final Concords, 1877-1509, which will be edited, as were the two former parts, by Mr. William Farrer. The Society has to thank Colonel Parker and Mr. Farrer for generously presenting the transcripts of both these volumes.

As to future work, the amount of material at the Society's command is so great that the difficulty is only one of selection. The Council has at this moment material ready, and competent workers willing to edit upwards of ten volumes of the greatest interest and importance in the elucidation of the history of the two Counties, but owing to the poor support with which the Society meets, it is only possible to put two of them in hand at present. It is very deplorable that out of the five million inhabitants of Lancashire and Cheshire, scarcely two hundred can be found to contribute the sum of one guinea per annum to this important educational work.

The Rolls of Admission to the Freedom of the City of Chester (1892-1805) have been carefully transcribed, and where possible, collated with the original entries in the Mayor's Books, by Mr. J. H. E. Bennett, of Chester. Mr. Bennett has presented this transcript to the Society, and has undertaken to edit the volume ; it is proposed to put this in the printers' hands at once. These Rolls relate to many persons in Lancashire as well as Cheshire. A complete transcript of the Marriage Licences of the ancient diocese of Chester, including Lancashire south of the Ribble, is in preparation, and at the present time the material for at least two volumes, covering the period 1606-1625, could be handed to the printers. The transcripts of a voluminous collection of Cheshire pedigrees, now preserved among the Harleian MSS., which includes the Heralds' Visitation of Cheshire for 1619, is in the hands of the Editor, as also is a transcript of the Chartulary of St. Werburgh's Abbey in Chester. In addition to these, an Index of the recently found Wills at the Probate Registry in Chester, 1595-1665, an Index to the Wills and Inventories remaining in the Bishop's Registry in Chester (1701-1800), and the Hearth Tax Returns for the County of Chester for the year 1668, only await the necessary funds to enable the Council to place them in the hands of the Members.

A few sets of the Society's Proceedings are still on hand. Members can obtain the price of sets or of single volumes by applying to the Honorary Secretary.

Assize Roll, 1265. Divers Counties.

12 Edward I.

ASSIZES [TAKEN] AT LANCASTRE BEFORE JOHN DE m. 4.
REYGATE AND GEOFFREY AGUYLLUN JUSTICES
ASSIGNED ON THE MORROW OF THE CLOSE OF EASTER
IN THE TWELFTH YEAR OF THE REIGN OF KING
EDWARD [17 APRIL 1284]. REYGATE.

During the interval of five and a half years between this Roll and Assize Roll 1238, Assizes were taken in Lancashire by Geoffrey Aguyllun and Alan de Walkingham; yet, beyond occasional references (see pp. 174 and 200), there is now no record of their work. On the death of Alan de Walkingham the following commission was issued:—

1283-4. January 12. York. Appointment of John de Reigate and Geoffrey Aguyllun to take all Assizes Certifications and Attaints arraigned before the said Geoffrey and Alan de Walkyngham (and which have not yet been taken by reason of the death of the said Alan) in the counties of York, Lancaster, Northumberland, Cumberland and Westmorland. Patent Roll, 12 Edward I., m. 19 dorso.

Reigate and Aguyllun commenced their first session at York on 3 February 1283-4, from which date until the autumn of 1285 a record of their work is preserved in this and the following Assize Roll (1265 and 1268).

A.R. 1265 has suffered considerably from damp, especially m. 5, where one or more Lancashire entries have been lost.

Mort d'Ancestor—Richard son of Hugh de Dillesworth, in right of his mother Juliana late wife of Hugh v. Margery daughter of Hugh de Dillesworth re 2 parts of a messuage and 4 acres in Dillesworth.

Margery has elsewhere called to warrant the Prior of the Hospital of S. John of Jerusalem in England, who now appears by his bailiff and asks that it be shown to him by what he ought to warrant; and Margery shows nothing by which the Prior should warrant, and asks that she may withdraw from the warranty and answer to the Assize, which is conceded: and she says that Hugh purchased the tenement from Juliana and gave it to her (Margery). Verdict that Juliana died seised and Richard is her heir. Judgment for plaintiff. Margery pardoned, being poor. Damages 4s., nothing to the Clerks.¹

Novel disseisin—Robert son of Michael de Merton v. Michael de Merton re a messuage and 2 oxgangs in Great Merton in Aumondernesse.

Defendant admits the disseisin, so Judgment for plaintiff. Michael is committed to gaol; Henry de Kygheley has undertaken to satisfy damages.

Novel disseisin—William son of Peter del Chyrche v. Adam son of Peter del Chyrche and others re a tenement in Chyrche.

Plaintiff did not prosecute; sureties [torn] de Chyrche and Richard son of Robert de Russeton.

Novel disseisin—Ralph son of Robert v. Robert de Brayebon of Mamecestre and Ellen his daughter re a messuage and 2½ acres in Mamecēstre.

Ellen says that she entered by gift from Robert, and Robert denies that plaintiff was ever in seisin. Verdict for plaintiff as to a moiety only; Judgment accordingly. Damages 12d.

¹ Throughout this Roll the word "clericis" is written in full in almost every instance, instead of c., t.c., etc., as is usually the case.

Novel disseisin—John son of Simon de Caton v. John de Caton, Ranulph de Dacre and Jennet his wife re common of pasture in 30 acres of moor and 4 acres of wood in Caton.

Novel disseisin—William le Breuster v. same re same common of pasture.

Ranulph says that John de Caton enfeoffed him; and John says that John son of Simon and William have no freehold to which common of pasture belongs, and he as chief lord pleads the Statute of Merton: and 6 acres were approved by one [blank] his father. The plaintiffs say that the Statute of Merton should not apply, for at the last Eyre of Peter de Cestrie and his fellow Justices in Eyre in that County on the Morrow of the Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary in the year of Grace MCCLXXI [3rd February 1271-2] it was agreed between Alan de Usefet, Gilbert le Serjaunt, William le Breuster Elyas de Harkelbeck, John de Gilberdholm, Richard Fuller, Adam de Appeltrethwayt, Adam his son, John son of Gilbert, John de Hoton, Robert de Hydeschawe, William de Moreplatte, Thomas son of Robert, Gilbert le Monner, Robert le fiz Essoll, John son of Simon, William Spurman, Thomas del Wra, Robert son of Robert de Kibbelesdale and all other the freeholders of that vill, on the one part, and John Gernette of Caton defendant, on the other part, as to a fence set up in Caton by John to the hurt of all the said plaintiffs, that the said John should at once demolish the fence: and John agreed never to set up a fence nor to extend nor to make any appovement of the said waste in Caton to the hurt etc. And the said Alan and others gave the said John 6 marks [the rest torn].

Mort d'Ancestor—Almaric son of Siward de Morton, in m. 4 dorso. right of his aunt Sibilla daughter of Gamel de Morton v. William son of William Attehall re 2 acres in Acton.

Mort d'Ancestor—Same, in right of same, v. Robert de Egge re a rood in Acton.

William calls to warrant Ralph de Mitton, who is present and warrants to him the tenement. Adjourned to Clyderhow on plaintiff's behalf.

Novel disseisin—Henry son of Henry de Haydock v. Henry de Haydock re a messuage and an oxgang in Cotum, 14 acres in Aston and a messuage and 30 acres in Ingol.

Verdict, that defendant enfeoffed plaintiff and put him in seisin, and he was seized for three weeks and more until etc. Judgment for plaintiff. Damages 9s. 2d. to the Clerks.

Novel disseisin—John de Kyrkeby v. Roger de Lancastre, Simon le Tayllur, Beatrix his wife, Adam de Gwype, Adam de Martindale, Richard son of Peter, Adam son of Peter, Alan de Cockanscales, William Chaumpeneys, Robert de Sulbythwayt and Robert de Martindal re 90 acres of wood and 120 acres of moor and moss in Kyrkebyirelyth.

Defendants say that the tenement claimed is in Uluerston; if not, that it belonged to Marmaduke de Thweng and Walter de Faucunbergh who enfeofed Roger. Adjourned to the Octave of S. Michael at Clyderhowe [6 October 1284], as the jurors have not made a view.

Novel disseisin—Henry de Boulton v. Adam de Wlyppeschyre, Beatrix his wife, David de Wlyppeschyre, [torn] his wife and Matthew his son re common of pasture in Wlyppeschyre [torn].

Verdict for defendant, with Judgment.

Novel disseisin—Henry de Trafford v. Henry de Lascy, Earl of Lincoln, and Henry de Blakeburn re a tenement in Eggewrth.

Mort d'Ancestor—Sigred wife of John de Bleghan, in right of her uncle Hugh Hugeloc of Lancastre v.
. re a messuage in Lancastre.

[The case is obliterated by damp and torn.]

m. 5.

Novel disseisin—Margery daughter of William son of William de Sonky v. Jordan de Kenyan, Adam his son and Roger son of Henry le Mouner re a messuage and 2 carucates in Kenyan.

Jordan says that, of the said tenement, he only holds a messuage, 2 oxgangs and 14 acres; as to the 14 acres, Margery was never in seisin, and as to the rest, one William de Sonky grandfather of Margery, his heir, held them of him by Knight's Service; and Jordan only claims custody during the minority of Margery. Margery, by Robert de Hyndeley her guardian, she being under age, says that Jordan cannot claim, for he granted the tenement to her grandfather William for ever, at an annual rent of 3s. at the Nativity B.V.M. for all secular services, exactions and demands; and Jordan bound himself and his heirs to acquit and defend the said William and his heirs from all foreign services and suit of the Court of Neuton for that and all the other tenements which William father of Jordan gave to the said William de Sonky; and she produces the charter.

Jordan admits the charter, but says it should not affect the service which has been done ever since the grant by William de Sonky the grandfather, who did foreign service for the said 2 oxgangs, where 9½ carucates make one Knight's Fee. An enquiry ordered; as Margery is under age and cannot put herself on any inquisition, it is provided that the enquiry proceed ex officio curiæ.

Verdict, that John enfeoffed William de Sonky of the said tenement by the charter aforesaid to hold of John at a rent of 3s. for all services, and that Jordan was never in seisin of any foreign services for the said tenement after the making of the charter: and Margery entered upon the tenement at her grandfather's death and was in seisin for eight days and more until Jordan disseised her. Judgment for plaintiff. Damages 5s. 2d. to the Clerks.

Novel disseisin—Roger Trauers v. Benedict Gernet, John Gernet, Henry de la Ruddegate, Adam de Fennay, John le Prechur, William le Low, Ralph del Hospital, Alan de Halsale, Adam de Hyton, John son of Emma, Roger Trebuche, Richard de Whystan, Roger son of Henry de Ruddegate, Henry his brother, Henry Smith and Richard de Wodeheued re the manor of Whystan, except one water mill.

Benedict says that he claims as lord: Alan, for the other defendants, says that the manor belonged to one Richard father of Henry de la Ruddegate who died seised. Plaintiff says that 8 days and more before the death of Richard the said Richard enfeoffed him. Verdict, that Richard enfeoffed Roger on a certain Thursday and Roger was seised till the Monday next after, on which day Richard died. Judgment for plaintiff against all the defendants except Benedict Gernet, Richard de Whystan and Richard de Wodehoued—the others to gaol. Damages 14s. 10d., nothing to the Clerks.

Novel disseisin—Cecily daughter of William Bussell of Eukeston v. William son of Robert Bussell of Laylond, John de Farington, Robert son of Hugh Kay and Adam de Hoton re a messuage and 14 acres in Laylond.

Verdict, that William enfeofed Cecily, so for plaintiff against William and Robert only. Judgment accordingly. Damages 3s. 6d. to the Clerks.

Novel disseisin—Robert de Sutton v. the Abbot of Stanlawe re a tenement in Little Werburton.

Plaintiff did not prosecute: surety, Henry del Barwe.

[Two lines torn and illegible.]

William de Valantyn alone appears. The others were attached; Jordan by John son of Hawise de Flixeton and William de Flixeton; Hugh by William son of Thomas de Flixeton and William Paternet of Flixton; and the Assize proceeds against them by default. William says the tenement is in Flixton not in Ormeston. Verdict for Plaintiff, with Judgment. Damages 11s. 6d., nothing to the Clerks.

Mort d'Ancestor—Robert son of Adam de Clyuacher in right of Adam Atteyate de Clyuacher his father v. Agnes daughter of Matilda de Clyuacher, Richard le Feure of Clyuacher, and Matilda his wife re a messuage and the moiety of 1 oxgang in Clyuacher.

Richard and Matilda say that they hold a third part of the tenement of the inheritance of Agnes, whom they call to warrant. She is present and warrants to them and answers for the whole; and she is seised of the said tenement as in her right and inheritance by hereditary descent: and she is under age. Agnes is seen in Court and is under age. Case to stand over till she be of age.

Novel disseisin—Matthew de Waley v. William son of Gilbert de Lauedyloue and William le Serjaunt re 1 acre in Lyuerpol.

Novel disseisin—Ralph de Hybernia v. same re 1 acre in Lyuerpol.

Defendants absent; William Lenedyloue attached by Roger Dydy and John de la More; William le Serjaunt not attached, not having been found. Verdict for plaintiff in each case with Judgment. Damages 40d. C. Pardoned fine, being poor.

Defendants say that the tenement is in Barton, and one Robert de Grelley died seised, after whose death the King's escheator seized all his lands for the King by reason of the minority of Thomas son and heir of the said Robert. Verdict, that the defendants, and not the King, hold the tenement, and that it is in Ormeston, so for plaintiff with Judgment. Damages 12d. [erased] $\frac{1}{2}$ mark.

Novel disseisin—Agnes who was wife of John de Haydock v. Adam de Hyndeley, Margery his daughter, Augustine del Wode, Hugh de Hulm, William le Reyueyed-prest, Henry Mallesone, John son of Gilbert del Molyn, Ranulph Maylersone and Adam de Gedelowe re common of pasture in Killechyrth in 25 acres of moor.

Adam answers for all and, as to 20 acres, says that he holds the tenement wherein Agnes claims common of pasture by the law of England of the inheritance of one Elizabeth late his wife; that he and the said Elizabeth with Robert de Risselley and Ellen his wife and Thomas de Hyndeley and Jennet his wife are joint chief lords of the vill of Kilchith and approved their waste (where Agnes claims common) by mutual consent; and that the 20 acres were assigned to Adam and Elizabeth as their share of the approvement before Agnes had any free tenement in the vill to which common of pasture could belong. And should it appear that Agnes then had such free tenement, then she is his tenant, and he pleads the Statute of Merton, and says that Agnes has pasture enough; as to 3 acres, Agnes herself has reduced them to culture; as to the other 2 acres, Agnes agreed to their approvement. Verdict for defendants to above effect. Judgment accordingly.

Novel disseisin—Robert de Penketh v. William le Botiller of Werington, Robert de Forth, Robert Herth, Adam Galpe, Richard de Meles, Robert de Meles, Richard le Colte, Henry son of John le Walze, Adam de Penketh and Elyas de Kynger re a moiety of 100 acres of moor and heath [brusseti] in Penketh.

Plaintiff did not prosecute; no sureties as he pledged his faith.

Mort d'Ancestor—Simon Payn, in right of Simon Payn his father v. [blank] de Bullyng re one acre of land in Wygan.

Defendant says that one William de Hokeleschawe at one time gave the said acre to the said Simon with one Emma his daughter, and to the heirs of the bodies of Simon and Emma; Simon died and Emma survived a long time seised of the said acre and then by her will disposed of it; that Simon who now brings the writ is son and heir of the said Simon and Emma; and he asks Judgment whether he could have account of the said tenement. And Simon produces the Charter of William de Hokeleschawe in these words:—"Know etc. that I, William de Hokeleschawe, have "given granted and by this my present Charter confirmed to Simon son of "Payn de Werington all my land which I held in the vill of Wygan, namely "one burgage and one acre of land etc. to have and to hold of me and my "heirs to him and his heirs between him and Emma his wife procreate "freely etc. yielding thence yearly to the Rector of the Church of Wygan "twelve pence and to the said William and his heirs one pepper corn "(granum piperis) for all etc. so that the said Simon and Emma shall not "be able to alienate assign nor sell to anyone the said burgage or its "belongings except to their heirs between them procreate. And I William "and my heirs the said burgage with its belongings to the said Simon and "Emma and their heirs as aforesaid against all folk for ever will warrant "acquit and defend."

Mort d'Ancestor—John son of Alexander de Haluetham, in right of Alexander his father v. Richard le Rus and Alice his wife re a messuage and an oxgang (except the moiety of one acre) in Chyrche.

Defendants come not, and they made essoin for not coming at Wyderow on the Octave of S. Michael [6 October 1284] and had by their essoin a day here at this day. Judgment that the Assize be taken against them through default; but put back to the Morrow of S. Matthew [22 September] at Whyttington for default of jurors as they have not come. The plaintiff puts Thomas del Grene in his place.

Mort d'Ancestor—Cecily wife of Roger de Barton, in right of William de Sekom her father, v. Richard son of Ralph Attebank and William his brother re a sixth part of 2 messuages and 2 acres of land in Lyuerpol.

Defendants say that Cecily entered upon the tenement after her father's death and enfeofed them by charter; this plaintiff denies. Verdict for defendants, with Judgment.

Nuisance—Thomas le Harpur of Kendale v. John de Inskyp of Wyttyngnam and Adam son of Geoffrey re unjust diversion of the course of a certain water in Wyttyngnam to hurt of plaintiff's free tenement.

The plaintiff had a certain watercourse direct to his mill at Wyttyngnam, and this the defendants have diverted. They say that plaintiff has no fee nor free tenement in Whyttingham apart from Matilda his wife, of her inheritance. Thomas says that he has a tenement by purchase, and their plea should not avail; for elsewhere in the King's Court before the said Geoffrey [Agyllun] and Alan de Walkyngnam in that County he brought a writ against the said John and Adam for a pool which they had made higher, namely that by raising the said pool a certain watercourse which used to come straight to his mill could not do so; and John and Adam granted for themselves and their heirs that the said water should come direct etc. The Assize proceeds. Verdict for plaintiff. Judgment that the watercourse be brought back to its proper course by view of the jurors. Damages, 12d.

Novel disseisin—Elyas son of Gamel v. Henry son of Robert de Lathum of Torbok and Ellen his wife, Alexander Of-the-wode and William his son, Jordan son of Alexander Of-the-wode, Richard Of-the-wetschawe, Adam son of John de Halywell, William son of William le Walse, Richard son of Henry de Turton, Robert son of John, Adam le Munke, Richard son of Stephen and Adam Sken re common of pasture in 200 acres of moor, pasture and marsh, in Turton.

Henry son of Robert and Ellen answer for all; and as chief lords of the vill of Turton plead the Provisions of Merton and says that plaintiff is their tenant and has ample pasture. Elyas says that one Gamel his father brought a writ of measurement against the ancestors of the said Ellen and the said pasture was measured.

[Case unfinished. A blank space.]

Let enquiry be made as to suit between one Henry grandfather of the said Ellen and Gamel father of Elyas.

Mort d'Ancestor—Gilbert del Grenhurst and Ellen his wife v. Robert son of William de Boulton and others re lands in Toung and Magna Boulton.

Novel disseisin—Hugh son of William son of Orm de Astelegh v. Jordan de Hulton parson of Weringeton Church re 4 acres of wood in Astelegh.

m. 12.

Richard son of Roger de Workedeley, for defendant, denies wrong, for he entered through one Peter de Tyldesley not named in the writ. Hugh says that Jordan disseised him by his own act. Put back for default of jurors to the Morrow of S. Matthew [22 September] at Whytington.

At that day come the jurors who say that Jordan disseised Hugh of 3 acres of wood and not of the rest. Judgment for plaintiff for 3 acres only. Damages, $\frac{1}{2}$ mark; to the Clerks.

Novel disseisin—Roger de Wedeacre v. Matilda de Claghton, William de Mireschow, Isold his wife, Roger de Mireschowe and Siward de Barton re 6 acres in Claghton.

Henry comes not and was not attached, not having been found; Richard says that he claims nothing; Robert and Margaret deny that the plaintiff was ever in seisin. Verdict for plaintiff against Robert and Margaret only. Judgment accordingly. Damages, 2s.; to the Clerks.

Mort d'Ancestor (Jury of 24)—Simon de Howyk v. Alice who was wife of Adam de Howyk re 10 acres in Howyk.

Novel disseisin—Richard de Soureby v. Alice la Botiller, Simon de Hole, William son of Walter de Carleton, Hugh de Whytingham, Adam de Kyrkeham and Adam Bariun re 16 acres in Soureby.

Alice answers for all and says that plaintiff leased the land to William son of Richard le Butiller for a term of 8 years; William assigned it to Edmund his brother, and he to Alice; and 4 years have still to run. Verdict to that effect. Judgment for defendants.

Mort d'Ancestor—Roger son of Alan de Sutton, under age, in right of Alan his father v. Lymoca daughter of Alan de Sutton re a messuage, 21 acres of land and 3 acres of meadow, in Raynhull.

Defendant comes not, and had esoin for not coming at Clyderhow on the Octave of S. Michael last and was given a day here now; Assize taken against her by default. Verdict that Alan did not die seised, for he enfeofed Lymoca before he died. Judgment for defendant. Plaintiff excused fine for false claim, being under age.

Novel disseisin—Richard son of Richard Byrun v. Matthew de Cleg re a dyke set up at Butterworth.

Plaintiff did not prosecute; no sureties, etc.

Novel disseisin—Richard de Rowenacres v. Adam de Bykerstat and Stephen de Bykerstat re a tenement in Bykerstat.

Novel disseisin—William de Schureneton v. Thomas de Tunstall re a messuage and 12 acres in Hecleston. m. 12 dorso.

Plaintiff withdraws; sureties, William son of Thomas de Quitul and Adam de Schouyngeton. Later a covenant is made between them, and Thomas acknowledges the said tenement to be the right of William and surrenders it to him and his heirs for ever.

Novel disseisin—Geoffrey son of Hugh de Gorehull v. Richard son of Robert de Radecliue re 30 messuages, 20 acres of land, 20 acres of meadow and 20 acres of moor and heath (brusseti), in Radecliue.

Richard says the action is unjust because Hugh father of Geoffrey (his heir) enfeoffed him of the tenement, and Geoffrey ratified the enfeoffment. Geoffrey says that his father enfeoffed him twelve years before his death. Verdict for defendant, with Judgment.

Mort d'Ancestor—Matilda wife of Henry son of Matthew de Schelf, in right of her mother Anabel daughter of Michael de Brerecliue v. John son of Ranulph de Fenny-cotes and Matilda his wife (as to a messuage and 18 acres) and Richard le Provost and Richard his son (as to 6 acres) re a messuage and 24 acres of land in Brerecliue.

John and Matilda say that they claim nothing but the nutriment of Alice and Agnes daughters of one Matilda daughter of Henry de Wyndehull who are now seised in fee of the freehold of the said tenement; and they produce a charter in the name of one Michael son of Robert de Brereclyf, by which he granted to Alice and Agnes all the land which Robert de Brereclyf formerly held in the territory of Brereclyf, which is the tenement now sought. The plaintiff says that they should not shelter themselves under this answer, for the said Michael enfeoffed Matilda wife of the said Henry, so that Alice and Agnes never after the said feoffment of Matilda had any rights therein. Day given to hear Judgment at Clyderhow on the Octave of S. Hilary [20 January 1285-6].

And Richard son of Richard says he holds all the said tenement against his father, which his father admits, and he calls his said father to warrant; as to 3 acres Anabel did not die seised; and as to the other 3 acres, Henry and Matilda held them after the death of Anabel, and Henry enfeoffed one Adam de Brereclyf who enfeoffed Richard. The parties make concord, Simon giving $\frac{1}{4}$ mark for leave. John, William and Petronilla, Matilda, Roger and Quenild acknowledge the 3 oxgangs to be the right of Simon and his heirs, to hold to him and the heirs of his body, and if Simon die without issue then the tenement to revert to the plaintiffs and the heirs of John, Petronilla, Matilda, and Quenild.

And Richard acknowledges that Robert died seised of the $\frac{1}{4}$ oxgang, and has leave to surrender it to the plaintiffs as heirs of Robert.

Novel disseisin—Eugenia who was wife of Richard Byrun v. Ralph de Cleg and Matthew de Cleg re 7 acres in Butterworth.

Novel disseisin—William de Sutton v. Thomas de Sutton and Master John de Ulneswalton re a tenement in Ulneswalton.

Plaintiff did not prosecute; no sureties.

Mort d'Ancestor—Constance daughter of Henry de Wodeford of Preston v. Henry de Stubbyheued and Ellen his wife re a messuage in Preston.

Plaintiff did not prosecute; no sureties.

Nuisance—John de Quytyngtham v. Thomas Harpur of Kendale and Matilda his wife re a pool set up in Whytyngtham to hurt of plaintiff's free tenement.

Plaintiff says that, owing to the pool and watercourse running to the mill of the defendants, the men of Whyttingham and other vills around go across his land and meadows and trample on them, so that mill is a great nuisance. Defendants say that they hold in common with one Adam de [blank] who has a sixth part of the pool and of the profits of the mill and is not named in the writ; and, as the only claim is for damage done by people coming to the mill who trample on plaintiff's crops and meadow, such that he himself of his own will could restrain them, he asks whether he should answer.

Adjourned to the Morrow of S. Matthew [22 September] at Wyttyngton to hear Judgment. Later adjourned to Cliderhow on the Octave of S. Hilary [20 January 1265-6] as Judgment is not yet made.

ASSIZES TAKEN AT WHYTTONGTON ON THE MORROW OF
S. MATTHEW THE APOSTLE IN THE THIRTEENTH
YEAR OF THE REIGN OF KING EDWARD [22 SEPTEMBER
1285] [BEFORE JOHN DE REYGATE AND GEOFFREY AGUYLLUN].

Mort d'Ancestor—Robert le Turner, in right of William le Pestur his father v. Ingelram de Gynes, Christiana his wife and Ada who was wife of William de Lyndeseye re a toft, 8 acres of land and one acre of meadow, in Warton nigh Berwyk.

The parties make concord, Robert giving $\frac{1}{2}$ mark for leave. It is agreed that defendants acknowledge the tenement to belong to Robert and grant it to him to hold of Ingram and Christiana and the heirs of Christiana by the service due and accustomed; and Robert remits damages.

Novel disseisin—William de Ormiston v. Adam de Ormiston, Constance his mother and Richard le Haler re a tenement in Ormiston.

Plaintiff did not prosecute; sureties, Thomas son of Henry de Urmeton and Patrick de Urmeton.

Novel disseisin—Thomas de Ormiston v. same defendants re 12 acres of moor and 2 acres of land in Ormiston.

Defendants say there is no vill of Ormiston, for the land is in Urmeton; moreover that William father of Adam died seised in fee, and on his death Adam entered as heir.

Thomas says that William father of Adam enfeoffed him (Thomas) of the tenement a long time before his death, and put him in seisin, and he stayed there in peace more than six days until, etc.

Put back to the Octave of S. Hilary [20 January 1285-6] at Clyderhowe, for default of jurors.

Novel disseisin—William son of Katherine v. John de Caton re 2 tofts and 2 oxgangs in Caton.

Plaintiff says that one William his father and Katherine his mother gave him the tenement and he held it for sixteen years till John disseised him. Verdict, that William was never in seisin. Judgment for defendant.

Novel disseisin—Adam de Burgh v. Edmund the King's brother and others re a tenement in Gersingham.

Plaintiff did not prosecute; sureties, William de Land and Nicholas de Sleddale.

Novel disseisin—William de Wyresdale v. Roger de Lancastre re common of pasture in Kyrkeby Irelyth.

Put back to the Octave of S. Hilary at Clyderhow [20 January 1285-6] on plaintiff's behalf.

Mort d'Ancestor—Sigrith wife of John de Bleghan, in right of Hugh son of Hugh her uncle, v. William de Oxeclyf re a messuage in Lancastre.

William had essoin of the King's service one month from Easter at Lancastre [22 April] and after that he appeared in Court and had a day by his essoin here at this day; and William says he was never essoined of the King's service and altogether denies that essoin; so the Assize is taken against him by the default he made a month from Easter at Lancaster.

Verdict, that Hugh did not die seised. Judgment for defendant. Plaintiff excused fine, being poor.

Novel disseisin (Jury of 24)—Ralph de Mitton v. Amabel who was wife of Jordan de Mitton re a tenement in Aghton.

Put back to the octave of S. Hilary [20 January] because John de Bristedwysill one of the Jury of 12 comes not, and for default of the 24; the Sheriff to have them present at the said term.

Novel disseisin—Adam de Leure v. Henry de Leure, Henry de Bornden and John de Burnden re 8 acres of land and 1 acre of meadow in Magna Leure.

Verdict for defendants, with Judgment.

m. 19 dorso. Novel disseisin—Richard le Noreys v. Master Alan de Bretton, Henry Trauers and Richard de Chyrchel re common of pasture in Whystan, in 30 acres of moor, 20 acres of wood and 10 acres of heath (brusseti).

Henry and Richard come, and Master Alan appears by John Sampson his bailiff. They say that the 10 acres of heath are in Prestcote and Chyrchel, not in Whystan. Henry says that the 20 acres of wood were enclosed by his father who held it as his severalty, as does Henry since his father's death; and plaintiff holds elsewhere to the value of that improvement. Richard de Chyrchel says that the 30 acres of moor are in Chyrchel, not in Whystan.

Verdict, that the 10 acres of heath are in Chyrchel and the rest in Whystan; that one [blank] father of Henry enclosed the 20 acres of wood, and Plaintiff holds elsewhere to that value; and that Richard de Chyrchal has not disseised the plaintiff. Judgment for defendants.

Mort d'Ancestor—Roger le Lorimer of Wygan v. John le Pestur of Wygan and others re a messuage and toft in Wygan.

Plaintiff did not prosecute; no sureties.

Mort d'Ancestor—Robert son of Thomas le Hount, in right of William le Hount his uncle v. Matilda daughter of Henry de Sefton (as to one toft and one acre), Henry le Carpenter, deceased (as to one toft), Thomas de Ines (as to one toft), William le Chappeleyn (as to one toft), Hugh de Ballynge (as to one acre), William de Preston (as to one acre of meadow), Robert de Rowinton (as to one toft), Robert Gryndelas (as to one toft), Thomas Aukersman and Emma his wife (as to one toft) and Master Alan de Walleton (as to one acre) re 7 tofts, 3 acres of land and one acre of meadow in Wygan.

Matilda says that she does not hold all the tenement claimed from her, for Thomas de Ines holds one third of it and William Chaplain another third. Plaintiff says that she holds it all, and held it on the day his writ was issued, namely 9 August in the 11th year of the now King's reign [1283].

Thomas de Ines says that he cannot defend without Alienor his wife; and William de Preston that he cannot be sued without Alienor his wife. The plaintiff cannot deny this and asks leave to withdraw his writ against Thomas and William, which is granted.

Robert Gryndelase calls to warrant Hugh le Mercer; to have him at Clyderhow on the Octave of S. Hilary.

Henry and Hugh appear. The other defendants (Robert de Rouynton and Adam de Welleton are dead) come not, and they were essoined for absence at Lancaster a month from Easter last; the Assize is taken against them in default.

Verdict for plaintiff against Henry le Charpentier, Robert de Rouynton and Adam de Waleton; and for William le Chappelayn, Thomas Aukersman, Emma his wife and Hugh de Bullyng against plaintiff. Judgment accordingly. Damages, 26s. 6d.; to the Clerks.

Mort d'Ancestor—Adam Kibbel, in right of Adam Kibbel his father v. William son of Richard de Rybbel re a messuage in Wurtheston.

Defendant says that one Richard, grandfather of plaintiff, was seised after the death of Adam the father, and the writ of Mort d'Ancestor should be a claim in right of the last in seisin; and that Adam who now brings this Assize is heir of Richard. Adam by his guardian, being under age, says that Adam his father died seised in fee, and after his death Richard intruded. As Adam is under age and the Justices wish to be more certain of this matter the enquiry proceeds.

Verdict, that Adam died seised in fee of the gift of the said Richard his father who, after Adam's death, intruded upon the messuage and enfeofed the defendant, William.

A day given to hear Judgment at Clyderhow on the Octave of S. Hilary [20 January 1285-6].

Novel disseisin—Adam de Billing v. Henry de Huton and Ranulph de Bloiner re a moiety of 2 messuages, a curtilage and a rent of 80 spurs (esparduciarum) of iron.

Defendants say that Plaintiff has elsewhere to the value of the moiety and curtilage, and as to the rent of the said spurs (esparduciorum) of iron, plaintiff was never seised. [No more appears].

Appendix II.

THE Great Rolls of the Exchequer, commonly called the Pipe Rolls, contain, among other (and perhaps more interesting) items relating to the County of Lancaster, an account of all such sums as were paid into or owing to the Treasury for Fines and Amercements before the Justices in Eyre in the County. In the absence of so many of the earlier Assize Rolls, these entries form, with a limited number of Final Concords, the sole records of numerous Assizes taken before these Justices prior to the reign of King Edward the First.

Mr. Farrar's volume of "Lancashire Pipe Rolls" exhausts all the Lancashire information on these Rolls down to the end of King John's reign. To that invaluable work reference must be made for the earlier Eyres of the Justices, whose transactions it has not been thought necessary to insert here. The following is an abstract of such entries as relate to the Assizes taken before the various Justices in Eyre in Lancashire and before Justices specially assigned (see Appendix I) during the reign of King Henry the Third (1216-1272). They form but a small portion of the matter relating to the County which these Pipe Rolls contain; but, as they detail the Fines and Amercements arising out of Assizes of which, with few exceptions, no other record exists, they demand a place here.

Pipe Roll, 2 Henry III [1217:18]. No. 62.Lancastre

John de Hec owes $\frac{1}{2}$ mark of amercement of the forest. m. 3.

William son of Maurice owes 40s. of the same.

The Sheriff owes 10s. of small particulars of the forest.

Peter de Heley owes 20s. of amercement.

*Roger de Stawurd owes $\frac{1}{2}$ mark for the same.

*Wilecocc owes 1 mark for the same.

Richard de Ribbelcestre owes $\frac{1}{2}$ mark for the same.

The land of Roger de Montbegon owes 6*li*. for the same.

*The Abbot of Chester owes 5 marks for fine of essoin.

*The Prior of Theofford [Thetford] owes 20 marks for default.

Thomas de Cophill owes $\frac{1}{2}$ mark of amercement.

Alexander le Wild owes 1 mark for the same.

NEW TENDERS

Thomas de Wardhill owes 1 mark for having an enquiry before the Justices in Eyre whether Geoffrey de Burdeshull appealed the said Thomas of robbery and breach of the King's peace through hate and spite or in that the said Thomas is guilty.

These entries are repeated in Pipe Rolls 63, 64 and 65, where the following variations occur:—Roll 63 has Hellei for Heley and Tiefford for Theofford. In Roll 64, Roger de Stawurd pays 3*s.* 8*d.* and owes 3*s., for which the Sheriff answers; Richard de Ribbelcestre owes 30 marks more of fine; and the Sheriff answers for the 5 marks due from the Abbot of Chester. The names marked with an asterisk () are omitted in Roll 65.

Pipe Roll, 3 Henry III [1218:19]. No. 63.Lancastre*NEW TENDERS

Henry de Rademan owes the third part of 10 marks m. 12 d. for having a writ against Helewise de Stutevill.

Thomas Bussell, Henry his brother and Mabel wife of William Bussell owe 1 mark for having an enquiry.

William le Buteillier owes $\frac{1}{2}$ mark for leave to concord.

Robert de Sutton owes $\frac{1}{2}$ mark for the same.

The County of Lancastre owe 20 marks for trespass.

Appendix III.

SO varied are the dates and so mixed, in many cases, the contents and order of arrangement of the three sets of Assize Rolls which contain Lancashire Pleas, that a simple Schedule of the Rolls in numerical order gives but a confused idea of all they contain. This synopsis of their contents has therefore been arranged in chronological order by regnal years and under two headings. Schedule A comprises all such Rolls, or parts of Rolls, as contain Assizes, Juries, Attaints and Certifications, with the Essoins, Attorney lists, etc., connected with such Pleas; while to Schedule B are relegated Inquests and Presentments, Gaol Deliveries, Quo Warranto and all other Pleas of the Crown.

These Schedules are preceded by a reference list of the Assize Rolls in numerical order, giving the membranes which contain Lancashire cases and the regnal year under which the contents will be found detailed in Schedule A or B. The Rolls calendared in this volume are marked with an asterisk.

In these Schedules a note has been made of several Sessions of which the records are missing. The dates of these are fixed by Essoins at the previous Session and adjournments, and their number might be increased by a closer examination of the existing records. Taking into consideration the risks to which the Rolls were exposed in the past, it is a matter of surprise that the series should be so complete and the gaps so few and small.

Fines and Amercements, and the like. The Civil Actions (largely representing the ancient Assizes), Fines and Recoveries, Deeds of Bargain and Sale, etc., etc., are entered on the magnificent series of Lancaster Palatine Plea Rolls, 767 in number, which commences with Rolls for 2 Henry IV and 7 Henry VI, and is practically complete from 19 Henry VI to 11 Victoria.
